Obituary

Naqualeon was born the first son and second child to Betty Davis and Dr. Devernon Legrand on June 19, 1962. Naqualeon adapted the nickname “Brother” and is even better known by this name than any other. Brother was the most appropriate name for him as he lived his life trying to be exactly that to his family and friends. Brother lived with so many qualities but will be most remembered for the love and support he extended to his family. He used the skills he learned to help his family. Brother was a plumber’s assistant and more notable an excellent landscaper. It was not the creative and beautiful work that he performed but the tireless dedication and faithfulness he committed to every challenge he pursued. When Brother had his mind set on a job, chore, or task, he would not stop until it was done.

Brother had a warrior’s spirit. He spoke vehemently and passionately about the things that concerned him. Everyone knew how he felt about a matter. And even though he was always the most outspoken, he had a humor and laugh that no one can ever forget. His family and friends would share in his humor over food he loved to prepare. Yes cooking, another of Brother’s passion. Brother would take scraps and make the best meals ever. His ability to do this gave insight into his attitude.

Brother was thankful to have minimum but hopeful that abundance would come. Brother always felt that he would hit the lotto. He loved scanning the daily results and playing numbers on a vibe. He wanted to hit big only to play a role in helping his family. Brother was humble in his heart, never demanding anyone to do anything for him. He always accepted and paid for his mistakes and never asked anyone to carry his burdens. In the last several years of his life, Brother was confronted with so much pain and suffering and he carried hope and strength for as long as God would allow.

Brother will be cherished and missed by his mother that he loved dearly and countless brothers and sisters. When we see a beautiful garden-we will think of Brother; when we see people playing handball in the park-we will think of Brother; when we see a plate of fried chicken wings and red beans and rice-we will think of Brother; when we see a man grinding to the soul of Marvin Gaye-we will think of Brother; and, when we see love in any form-we will think of Brother.

We miss you, we love you, we wait to be reunited with you in God’s name.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
