OBITUARY

Vincent Benjamin Davis was born on February 24, 1936 in Norfolk, Virginia, to the late Benjamin and Ruby Davis.

Vincent graduated from Virginia State University and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant. He served in the U.S. Army Reserve.

His interest in law led him to receive the Jurists Doctor Degree. Vincent went on to have a successful career as a Union Lawyer for New York City.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Jean Davis of the Bronx, NY; two sons, Benjamin Vincent Davis and Vincent Elijah Davis, both of New York City; stepdaughter, Cathy; stepson, Tyrone; a daughter he helped raise, Jiattashey; a loving niece, Ruby Tucker; a nephew, George Tucker; two sisters-in-law, Barbara and Gloria; two brothers-in-law, Calvin and Robert; as well as a host of other dear friends and relatives.

He will be forever loved and forever remembered.

A FALLEN LIMB

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song,
the good life I lived while I was strong.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes we're together again.

Your Beloved Wife, Jean Davis ♥
