Obituary

Cindy A. Rhodes was born on June 5, 1957 in Florence, South Carolina to the late Virginia Rhodes and the Leroy Rhodes.

Cindy graduated from Franklin K. Lane and continued her education at InterBoro College in which she studied Social Work.

Cindy held jobs as a Home Health Aide, and she trained and took lessons with D. Pinto Driving School for commercial/truck driving in which she received her CDL-Commercial Driving License. Cindy then obtained a position as a school bus driver for the mentally challenged. That led to her becoming a driver with Access-A-Ride.

Cindy loved her family and friends and lead a blessed life. Her most precious gifts was her love, support, and kindness to others.

Cindy was a mother, grandma, sister, and aunt. She was faithful, loyal, and helpful to all. Everyone who knew her considered her to be their best friend. Cindy loved socializing with people and empowering her children to achieve the greatest levels of success.

OUR mother was the best role model! She fought to give her children and grandchildren a good life. One that was prosperous and enriched with love and she always encouraged us to succeed and work hard to get what we wanted. She was our #1 cheerleader and was proud of all our accomplishments. Momma we will always love you.

Cindy is preceded in death by her mother, Virginia Rhodes; brothers, Charles Rhodes and Roderick Rhodes; and sister, Edith Rhodes-Carson.

She leaves behind to treasure her memories one daughter, Antoinette Rhodes; one son, Yusef Rhodes; two grandchildren, Mark T. Cort and Yusef J. Rhodes, Jr.; three sisters, Veronica Rhodes, Iachonnie Taylor, and Renae Byrd; and a host of nieces, nephews, brothers-in-law, other relatives and friends.
