

Sha-Sha

You were the first in our family to start a new generation, leading the pack of our greatest creations, from your quiet demeanor and smirk of a smile to sneaking my sneakers out my room every once in a while eating your food and Moody's too and Nana calling you in to get ready for school.

Missing you already this doesn't seem real so numb from the pain it's so hard to feel.

The joy we had together will forever be seared in our minds, heart, and soul.

Now is the time for you to reconnect with your family that has moved on, still not believing that you are gone.

We sit and wonder what we could have done, what we should have said, what could have made a difference, pushing towards a path of a fresh start having and holding you close within our hearts.

You often said you were the black sheep of our family, you felt those feelings deep. It is at this time more than ever that our family truly weeps, fighting through the pain that your passing has caused, praying that we could put our last moments with you on pause.

We will love and miss you forever that will never change, our hearts will forever be a little broken mending over time but you Shaquan, Sha-Sha, Greedy, Capo will forever be on our minds.

Shaquan Al-Hakim Grant was born October 7th, 1983 to the late Martina (Takisha) Grant and Hakim Wimberley. Capo as he was affectionately called by his peers was respected in the streets and had a commanding presence wherever he was. He was universally recognized as a person to look up to, always ready and willing to lend a helping hand to all, and one of the most loyal people you could ever meet.

Sha-Sha was a kind-hearted, loving, silly and extremely fun person who loved spending time with his family. He adored his sons and fought tirelessly to pursue a better life for his children.

He looked forward to moving up in ranks on his job as a laborer for the City of Newark Department of Public Works.

As a child he spent most of his time between both grandmothers Elaine Grant and the late Jean Wimberley. Growing up in between the two households gave him a loving foundation and closeness to his family that was undeniable. His Aunt Fatimah was like a mother and his Aunt "Misha" was like an older sister and his Cousin "Moody" was more like a brother. This type of closeness is why Sha-Sha always wanted to be around family and friends. Family is what brought him the most joy in life.

In addition to being passionate about his family he was equally zealous about good food and the New York Giants.

Shaquan departed this life on March 27th, 2021 and now joins his mother, Martina (Takisha) Grant his grandmother Jean Wimberley and Aunt Yasmin.

Shaquan leaves to cherish his loving memory his sons' Messiah Grant and Tahan Williams, father Hakim Wimberley, siblings Naisha Phillips, Taakiya Grant, Ebbin Grant and Quran Wimberley. Maternal grandmother Elaine Grant and high school sweetheart and soulmate Qunia Carter and a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and associates.
