Obituary

Angela Mack was born on April 21, 1956 in Bronx, New York to Daisy and Louis Mack, Sr. She was one of eight children. She was the sixth born child born to Daisy and Louis Sr.

Angela received her formal education in the New York City Public School system. She attended Walton High School in the Bronx. Angela worked for the Human Resource Administration of New York as an office associate for eleven years. After working with the organization, Angela went on to attend the Technical Career Institute of New York where she received her Associates Degree in Telecommunication. Angela moved on to become a Certified Home Health Aide where she worked with different clients that she grew close to. She said she enjoyed her clients because many of them reminded her of her mother. Angela worked for Best Choice Home Health care agency until she retired in 2008.

Angela was a very genuine and honest soul. She was never shy about voicing her opinion about anything. In spite of her serious demeanor, she had a refreshing sense of humor. She loved to laugh and recant stories of her childhood and talk about the fun times of growing up in a family with seven other siblings. Angela was referred to as the “fun aunt” by her nieces and nephews. She always had a funny story to tell, a smile on her face and was a joy to be around. Angela was an amazing cook and she loved to entertain. She loved her family and was very accommodating and would do anything for those she loved.

Later in life, Angela joined her church family of Morning Star Full Gospel Assembly, in the Bronx, New York. She decided to follow in her mother’s footsteps and gave her life to Christ, and was born again in May 2004. She then officially became a member of Morning Star, on February 2, 2005. Angela loved the Lord! She regularly attended Sunday services at her church and was a consistent member of Adult Sunday School. Angela loved learning the word of God, and volunteered as a clerical assistant for the Wednesday night Bible Study. She was a joyful member of the Celestial Choir and diligently served in the cleaning ministry. Angela was faithful in all of her ministry duties for many years, until her health prevented her from attending.

Angela was preceded in death by her parents Daisy and Louis Mack Sr., Brothers Leon Mack, Clyde Mack, Louis Mack Jr., and Sister Dorothy Johnson

Angela was called home on March 31, 2021. She leaves to cherish her loving memory, her son, Reginald Mack, her two sisters, Mae Mack, and, Eloise Gary; brother, Vernon Mack; nieces Crystal Mack and Regine Gary; nephews, LaRon Mack, Melvin Johnson, Delano Mack, and Timothy Mack; brother-in law Michael Gary and a host of cousins, church family and friends.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!
-Helen Steiner Rice
