

Look For Me In The Rainbows

*Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, way up in the sky.
In the morning sunrise when all the world is new,
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.
Time for me to go now, I won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, high up in the sky.
In the evening sunset, when all the world is through,
Just look for me and love me and I'll be close to you.
It won't be forever, the day will come and then
My loving arms will hold you, when we meet again.
Time for us to part now, we won't say goodbye;
Look for me in rainbows, shining in the sky.
Every waking moment and all your whole life through
Just look for me and love me, as you know I loved you.
Just wish me near to you,
And I'll be there with you.*

Reflections of Life

Bernard “Mushin” Eason was born on February 4, 1966 in Jersey City, New Jersey to Nelly Ruth Eason and Albert Henderson. He departed this life on April 2, 2021 in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Mushin grew up in North Newark and was educated in the Newark and East Orange school districts, later obtaining his GED. Mushin met the love of his life, Mumtahana Bell. They had two children Mushin and Hassana Bell. Mushin’s youngest son, Hakim, was born a year following the birth of his older sister.

Mushin was a dedicated and hard worker, spending many of his later years working as a proud member of Local 325 Cement and Demolition. Mushin was a huge fan of Cadillac automobiles, which was fitting for his cool smooth style. He lived his life on his own terms and remained true to himself at all times. Mushin loved his family and was a natural born protector for those he loved. He lived to experience one of his most proudest moments in life, walking his only daughter down the aisle to her husband, David Rogers. Mushin took comfort in knowing that his only daughter was in good hands, a wish for any loving father.

Mushin was predeceased in life by his parents, Nelly Ruth Eason and Albert Henderson; his son; Mushin Bell; his siblings, Otis Jerome Eason, Jaqueline Eason, Kathy Vargas and Jeremy Shelton.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory: (1) daughter Hassana Bell (David); (1) son Hakim Wilcher (La’Teal); (7) grandchildren Mushin Bell, Hakim Wilcher Jr., Ja’Kim Wilcher, Za’kim Wilcher, Ta’Maure Wilcher, Ta’Kim Wilcher, and Ta’Myia Wilcher; (10) siblings William “Saleem” Eason (Traci), Vivian Eason, Dalphine Dwah, Eric Henderson (Bertrece), Tonia Courtemache (Joel), Leechel Dildy (Preston), Troy Henderson, Nikkiea “Binky” Wilson and Joyia Werner; (2) special girls whom he loved and treated like his own granddaughters Tylajah and Asia Maldonado and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
