Obituary

Victoria Renee Clay was born on July 27, 1957 at Harlem Hospital to Marjorie Clay and the late, Charles Clay. She was the oldest of three siblings.

She graduated from Washington Irving High School and attended classes for nursing at Hunter College. She worked for a travel agency for a couple of years and then became a permanent employee at Harlem Hospital for over 30 years. She then transferred to work for Mental Health and Hospitals. She received an award for "Favorite Employee" after only six months on the job and "Best Employee of the Year Award". She retired early after becoming ill on the job.

She found the Lord at a young age. She belonged to Shiloh Baptist Church for many years. She taught Sunday School and her students just loved her. Her class would be full each and every Sunday morning. She was a member of the Youth Counsel. She was chosen by the late Rev. Wain Wright to represent the youth of the church at two major youth conventions. He was so proud of her work as a young Christian woman.

She then left to become a member of Greater Refuge Temple in which she began speaking in tongues. She was a devoted member of the church. She would attend church when she wasn't feeling well. Church was her life. She was a licensed Missionary for 30 years, and a member of the Women's Counsel. She had a gift of being able to pray. She would pray for you morning, noon and night. She would always give words of encouragement. She would wake up reading her Bible each and every morning. She just enjoyed being in the house of the Lord, listening to the Word and rejoicing in services. She also enjoyed visiting other churches as well. She lived the life of a true Christian. She loved the Lord with all her heart. She couldn't wait until her church would open again.

I know that she is now dancing with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Marjorie Clay; her sisters, Felita Bearden-Shaw and Chandra Clay; brother, Charles C. Clay; nephews, Jermaine Mason and Treyon C. Clay; nieces, Ebony L. Clay and Zariah R. Clay; grand nieces and nephews; and extended family and friends.

I've Changed My Address

I've changed my address to Heaven
I've crossed the Great Divide.
I know there's no sorrow or crying,
Because I've reached the other side.
I am so happy to be here, for the Lord Himself I see.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place where you'll find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I bid this world goodbye.
I now live forever with Jesus in my new home in the sky. I have no burdens or heartaches and from tears I am now free.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place to find me.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
I'm safe forevermore. For the Lord built a mansion and my name is on the door.
You can find us walking together,
for where He is, I'll always be.
I've changed my address to Heaven,
That's the place you'll find me.
