Obituary

William Clarence Lee Lindsey also known as “Dickie” to family and “Lucky” or ‘Bill’ to friends at age 80 years old he passed away on Saturday, April 3, 2021 at 4:12PM at Bronx Park Rehab Center.

William was born on December 15, 1940 in Petersburg, Virginia to his late parents Harold LeRoy Lindsey Sr. and Annie Lee Lindsey (Mason). Moving to Coop City in 1971 Bronx, New York until the day of his passing,

He was educated in both private schools (North Eastern Academy) graduated in 1955, went to Evander Childs High School where he graduated in June 1958. He went on to graduate from Hunter College in January 1963, after graduating he became part of the Hunter staff and taught Sociology and Psychology in 1964. William then moved on to become the head of Bursar Office at Mercy College in 1971 along with being the Assistant Dean, then becoming Dean of Administrations until having a stroke in 2011.

In his spare time William loved to travel, visiting many places across the world. Just to name a few Africa, South America, North America, Brazil etc. if anyone had known William, they knew he was an avid reader in his home right now he has thousands of books.

William is survived by brother Haroun M. Ali (Harold LeRoy Lindsey Jr.); niece Lisa John; nephew Rashon Lindsey; great nephews Joseph, Christian, Akai, Cayden, Jason and Timothy.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace at the end of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will I miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
don't lengthen your time with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now – He set me free.
