Obituary

Wilhelmenia Curry was born in the winter time, January 24, 1958, however, she warmed the hearts of her parents and siblings. She was born in the Birmingham, Alabama and departed this life at John Hopkins Hospital, Brooklyn, New York on April 11, 2021.

After graduating from high school and receiving higher education, Wilhelmenia became a Home Health Aide. She was able to express and demonstrate love, care, and compassion, especially for the elderly in which she enjoyed assisting.

Wilhelmenia was a loving mother of two children, Kimesha and Jamal; and a loving and doting grandmother of four beautiful grandchildren. She always enjoyed taking her grandchildren to the park, letting them ride their bikes, and taking them out to eat. Wilhelmenia was motherly to other children as well, many of them called her “Auntie”. She was known for being outspoken, offering her opinion and advice. She loved to read and definitely loved to play handball. We will fondly remember her for being a wonderful person in our lives.

Wilhelmenia leaves to cherish her memories: her two children, Kimesha Curry and Jamal Curry; four grandchildren, Zakia, Jasheem, Ahmari and Jamir; six siblings, Ann Elizabeth Miles, Myralann Thomas, Nathaniel Thomas, Brenda Thomas, Blanche Thomas and Jeffrey Curry; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
