Obituary

On Monday, March 29th, 2021, Pedro Brito, beloved by many, passed away at the age of 52. Pedro was born on February 22, 1969, in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic to Rafael Brito and Maria P. Martinez de Brito.

Though he never formally completed school, he was a student of many disciplines and always made sure to remain knowledgeable on the affairs of the world as well as remaining diligent on his personal investments and other business ventures. In the 1990s, he moved to the United States without knowing any English and was able to teach himself both the language and the customs of the nation while successfully finding ways to provide for himself. His work ethic was unmatched, and he always made sure that everyone had what they needed.

He was a man of many talents, but his passion was for horses. He owned various horses in the Dominican Republic and was always tending for his horses while racing them for money in the hippodrome. He carried his passion with him to the United States and was able to make a name for himself in NYC's hippodrome and the hippodrome in Santo Domingo. He was also an avid Yankees fan and would frequently watch games with his family. Though short-tempered, Pedro was kind, loving, and left a profound impression and all who met him.

Unfortunately, he had a son named Starlin who passed away before him, but he is survived by his seven children: Cinthia, Pamela, Rosangely, Pedro, Peter, Patrick, and Paola. They vary in ages and location. Some are in the Dominican Republic, and others are in the United States. He was a man of faith, so we know he is in a better place. His memory will not be forgotten.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
