

Dearest Mommy

I am writing this letter to you in heaven to tell you how much I miss and love you.

Your absence will always be present in my heart. I will always cherish and long to hear your laughter, kissing and biting your cheeks at the end of each day, our weekend shopping sprees, and indulge in simple pleasures.

Mommy, you were my best friend in the world. You were my everything.

I miss hearing your laughter and you cussing me out because I don't move fast enough when you called me. Or you arguing with Ian because he ate your pork n beans or threw away your salad in the fridge.

In a bittersweet moment, another angel has found her wings, safe into the arms of God. I know you live on, through those lives you have touched. I know someday I will see you again. In my heart I will continue to keep you close. You will be forever remembered and always loved. Please continue to watch over Lexi Pooh (Cookie) and Aria from your world above.

I will continue to make you proud as I celebrate your life and honor you by being the very best me that I can be.

I love you Mommy forever and ever.

~ Rhonda

Obituary

Sylvia Eva Lauder, the daughter of Alejandro Osorio Senior and Elisia Devalle Osorio was born on December 9th, 1948. Her parents migrated from San Juan, Puerto Rico to New York's Spanish Harlem. Her father Alejandro Osorio, was a Merchant Seaman and spent many months away at sea. It was very difficult for him. Tragically, their mother Elisia would become ill and pass away early in the children's lives. As a loving father and with a desire for the best opportunity for his children, Sylvia and her siblings were placed in the care of the Catholic Charities of New York and then placed in separate foster homes.

As time went by as a young woman Sylvia was a professional model in the fashion district being mentored by Janice Dickinson from "America's Next Top Model". Sylvia worked several jobs, one rewarding job was in the medical profession assisting in the doctor's office.

Sylvia loved to travel to Cape May, Atlantic City, and Main Street. She loved to shop, cook spanish food, dance, and most importantly spending time with her loved ones.

Sylvia was well liked and loved. Her sense of humor, kindness, heart of genuine compassion and empathy for others, endeared her to many people. She was glad to call you friend. Sylvia loved her neighbors as much as she loved herself. Sylvia walked in the light.

Sylvia Lauder was a godly woman who loved laughing and spending time with her late husband Ronald and her daughters America (Amy) and Rhonda. Her daughters, granddaughters, family and friends were the center of her life. When six darling granddaughters now 3 to 27 years old, were added to the Lauder household, Sylvia reaped an abundance of love, discipline, advice and encouragement upon them. They lovingly called her Mama! With five granddaughters and 1 great granddaughter Sylvia basked in the grandmotherly spirit. She was an excellent role model. She modeled for her daughters and granddaughters, the character traits of a godly woman and compassion and respect for one another. Her granddaughters described her as strong, kind, smart, loving, hard & firm, and meticulous. With strong ties mama was the heart of the family.

She was preceded to glory by her mother Elisia Devalle Osorio, and her father Alejandro Osorio Sr, her brother Alisandro (Alex), her sister Sonia Osorio-James, her brother in laws Michael Williams & William Hilton, her sister in laws Jackie and Denise Williams, her mother-in-law and father-in-law Walter Lee and John Edwards Williams, and her late husband Ronald Lauder.

Our beloved Sylvia was survived by her daughters America (Amy) Rentas and Rhonda Rentas-Adams; son-in-law Ian Adams; Sisters: Carmen Hilton and Evelyn James; her brother: Willie Osorio; Grandchildren: Nakiyah, Joanna, Alexis, Faith and Aria; great granddaughter: Kaylee Pittman; Sister in Law: Katie Williams; Brother-in-laws: Warren James, Joseph James, Bernard Williams, Dennis Williams, Ricky Williams, Wayne Williams, Steven Williams; and a host of nieces and nephews. Sylvia will be truly missed and was truly loved by all.
