Obituary

Carolyn Jean Pierre was born on October 8, 1949 to John and Leola Croom in Kinston, North Carolina.

She graduated from Abkin High School in 1967. A few years later, Carolyn moved to East Orange, NJ. She married Jean Luckner Pierre in the late seventies. Carolyn worked as a CNA at West Caldwell Care Center until she retired in 1995. That same year she became a member of New Hope Baptist Church. She also participated in the Essex County Youth House mentoring program.

Carolyn was a warm, kind and compassionate person and she loved her family above everything else. She always put her children and her grandchildren first. In her spare time, she loved to watch old westerns like "Gunsmoke". She also enjoyed shows like "General Hospital", "Law and Order", as well as watching the Food Network. Carolyn loved to read her Bible, praying for and with others, spending time with family, laughing and always wearing a smile on her face. She was a loving, caring and devoted mother, wife, sister, friend and now, angel.

Carolyn passed away on April 14, 2021 at St. Joseph Hospital in Wayne, NJ.

She is survived by: her two children, Jeanneen and Carlton; her grandchildren, Paige, Qumar, Robin, Sahmeennah and Tamia; her two brothers, John and Tom; as well as her sister, Rebecca.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
