Obituary

A businesswoman, avid traveler, and mother, Delia Dutton was born on December 11, 1934 to Silvia Dixon and Victor Thompson, in the Republic of Panama.

She was married to Mr. George Dutton.

Delia eventually emigrated to the United States, where she earned a living for many years as a garment center's bookkeeper.

Delia worked diligently. Her efforts made it possible to have her family also move from Panama to join her in the United States.

A determined and ambitious individual, Delia eventually owned a home in Brooklyn's East Flatbush neighborhood. She also became an entrepreneur by founding her own business, DR Income Tax and Travel. Delia ran her business from her home, committing herself to serve her clients' needs for tax preparation and travel planning.

Traveling was a passion for Delia, as made clear from her visits back to Panama, to her trips across the globe in The Caribbean, South America, Africa, and Europe.

Delia was predeceased by her father Victor Thompson, mother Silvia Thompson, her brothers Victor Anglin and Leroy Thompson, and her sister Xenia Roberts.

She is survived by her daughter, Maritza X. Clark-Jones, son-in-law, Sherman Jones Sr.; three grandchildren, Raven L. Lynch, Sherman Jones Jr. and Eugene Jones; two great grandchildren, Zhanasia Bynum and Shandon Lynch; her nephews and nieces: Victor Jr, Silvia, Esmeralda, Leonore, Ricardo, Bielka, Kimberly and Derek; as well as a host of relatives and friends.

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8

*1 There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity
under heaven:*

*2 a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,*

*3 a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,*

*4 a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,*

*5 a time to scatter stones
and a time to gather them,*

*a time to embrace and a time to refrain, 6 a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,*

*7 a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,*

*8 a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.*
