Obituary

Henrietta Jackson, the daughter of the late Elijah Weaver Sr. and the late Elizabeth Weaver was born on February 20, 1941 in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

She attended school through the Rock Hill Public School system.

She relocated to Paterson, NJ in the late 1950's. In 1958 she accepted Jesus Christ and believed in the eternal hope of Christ.

Henrietta was united in Holy Matrimony in 1966 to Wilbert Jackson and remained faithful until his death.

Henrietta enjoyed motherhood to her only son and remained committed to raising her only grandson.

Henrietta was employed at Rexon Technology, Inc. for many years until her retirement.

Henrietta was preceded in death by her parents, Elijah and Elizabeth Weaver, three brothers, Ernest Belton, Mack and James Weaver, two sisters, Rosa Lee Hill and Mary McDaniels.

Henrietta Jackson departed this life on April 19, 2021 at St. Joseph's University Medical Center, Paterson, NJ after a brief illness at the age of 80 years.

Henrietta leaves to mourn her passing: one son, Ronnie Lee Weaver of Irvington, NJ; one grandson, Raheen M. Weaver of Little Egg Harbor, NJ; one brother, Elijah (Jack) Weaver Jr. of Wayne, NJ; one sister, Ruby Beckett of East Patchogue, Long Island; special niece, Brenda Hill of Paterson, NJ; goddaughter, Christine Bullock of Irvington, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain
and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me,
"get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*
