Obituary

Tyrone Gerard Trower was born on May 26, 1955 to William S. and Constance Trower in East Orange, NJ. He was the second of three children.

Some People knew him as Poohie or T-Bone. He always had a smile and was a good-hearted person who was loved by his family and friends.

Tyrone was educated through the East Orange School District and later went on to work for Upsala College, East Orange, from 1980-1995 in Food Services. He went on to work at Shoprite until 2013.

Tyrone was a devoted churchgoer. He was an Usher at Mount Carmel Missionary Baptist Church In Orange for a number of years. He then became a member of Divinity Missionary Baptist Church.

He loved watching TV, looking at all kinds of shows, especially his soap operas and sports. His favorite teams were the Pittsburgh Steelers, Pirates and College Football Teams.

He had a love for different types of music and loved going to concerts. He enjoyed all types of movies which was evident by his huge movie collection of tapes and DVDs along with a collection of CDs. He was also a big wrestling fan. He had a surprising knowledge of many singing groups, sports figures and events.

Tyrone loved swimming and went to the YMCA to swim whenever he could. He also loved going on vacations where he used to frequent the Kings Resort in Upstate NY by himself; they knew and took care of him during each visit.

On April 26, 2021, Tyrone departed this life, due to Covid-19, at Clara Maass Hospital in Belleville. Gone too soon, the family will miss his hardy laugh and friendly, loving Nature.

Tyrone leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved Mother, Constance Trower, Brother, William Trower, Sister, Diana Wanamaker, Nephew, Duane Wanamaker, Niece, Khalilah Wanamaker, Aunt, Joyce Johnson and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, friends and his Divinity Missionary Baptist Church Brotherhood.

See You Again

No greater pain like that of losing a brother the only thing that could compare
Is the lost of a father or mother
The tide that bonds us by way of our blood
From day one we had that unspoken love
You'd have my back and I'd have yours
The secrets we shared once behind closed doors
Farewell for now my dear brother and friend
Save a room for me for I'll see you again.
