

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Madelyn Rambert affectionately known as “Matt” was called to rest with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on May 2, 2021.

Madelyn was born in Chinquapin, North Carolina on March 14, 1937 to the late Luther J. Stokes and Flossie Stokes. Madelyn was employed by Tecknit Inc. in Cranford, New Jersey before retiring at the age of 65. She was a faithful member of the Progressive Baptist Church in Rahway, New Jersey. Madelyn enjoyed spending time with her family especially on holidays and special celebrations. And one of her favorite hobbies was visiting and playing at various casinos.

Madelyn is predeceased by her husband Lawrence Rambert and her siblings Joseph Stokes, Osper (Buddy) Stokes, Elethen Stokes, Vascelia Durant, Fairbland Davis and Inez Whitehead.

She is survived by her daughter Satonya Rambert of Pennsylvania, son Kenneth Rambert of New Jersey, and daughter Anita Stokes of North Carolina. She leaves loving grandchildren Ebony Haynes, Jasmine Oliver, and Faith Rambert all of New Jersey to cherish her memory. Additionally, one brother Alfred Stokes (Verna) of North Carolina; along with a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and good friends who will remember her with great love.
