Obituary

Gretel Wright was born to Aubrey McKenzie and Margaret Black-McKenzie on October 14, 1944 in the lush parish of Clarendon, Jamaica. There surrounded by tranquility and community, she learned the lessons of hard work, discipline and love for God, which would characterize her life.

Gretel possessed a natural curiosity and an insightful mind which allowed her to complete her formal education at the Frankfield High School in Clarendon. She was an avid reader. Reading opened the world to her fingertips. Her determination to succeed and her venturesome spirit, led her to leave her homeland and to chart a course for the United States. Although an excellent seamstress, Gretel served others, with joy, as a home health aide. Her consideration and compassionate care for her clients was much admired and Gretel was greatly beloved.

Gretel loved the Lord and found a spiritual home at the North Bronx Seventh-day Adventist Church. She was an active Sabbath School member, and could often be found at the door welcoming guests in her capacity as usher.

She was a loving big sister, and would never miss an opportunity to celebrate the holidays with family. Gretel took great pride her culinary skills and all who sat at her table were thankful.

Gretel closed her eyes to this world on April 24, 2021 to await the call of the Life Giver on resurrection morn. Her husband , Oliver Wright, predeceased her. She leaves to morn her children, Marylyn Robinson, Densdales Miller, Joan Allen, Kissyanne Miller, and Joan Smith; grandchildren; great grandchildren; siblings: Barbara , Winsome, Vernica , Nuchette , Pamela , Marilyn, Lenox , George, Carol and Victor; a host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends.

Precious Memories

Blessed Assurance

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine!
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
born of his Spirit, washed in his blood.

Refrain.

This is my story, this is my song,
praising my Savior all the day long.

This is my story, this is my song,
praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect communion, perfect delight,
visions of rapture now burst on my sight.

Angels descending bring from above echoes of mercy, whispers of love. [Refrain]

Perfect submission, all is at rest.

I in my Savior am happy and bless'd,
watching and waiting, looking above,
filled with his goodness, lost in his love. [Refrain]
