Obituary

Doris Hayes the daughter of the late Edward and Ethel Caraway was born on March 12, 1942.

She grew up in Orange, NJ and graduated from Orange High School. After graduating, she served the community as a dedicated bus driver for the Montclair School System for many years. She later rounded out her career by working for the Greyhound bus company. Eventually she moved to Georgia in order to be closer to her children and grandchildren.

Doris loved the Lord, and had unmovable faith even in her most trying times. She was caring, kind, a loving mother, grandmother, auntie, and sister. She loved all children and had a giving and warm spirit. Her many interests and talents included; gardening, movies, dancing and spending time in the kitchen creating delicious meals for her family. She was married to the late Chester Hayes.

Doris reached out and extended herself not only to her family, but to anyone she could help and never complained.

She was predeceased by her husband, the late Chester Hayes; her daughter, Michelle Hayes; son, Dawyne Hayes; siblings, Rose, Harvey, David, John, Irene, Helen, Viola, and Elizabeth.

Doris leaves to cherish her memory her sons, Jerome Lorenzo Hayes and Alonzo Edgar Hayes; daughters, Felicia Clarke and Sonja Bloxton; sons-in-law, Dale Clarke and Willie Bloxton; grandchildren, Telicia, Jerome Jr., Brittany and Christopher; brother Erskine Sr.; sister Ethel and a host of relatives and friends.

Rest my sister for you must. We all loved you, but God loved you best!

My Mom

Your arms forever open,
Your hugs that held me tight
Your special goodnight kisses
To last throughout the night
A shoulder I could cry on
A softly spoken word
An all-familiar song you'd sing,
The sweetest that I've heard.

To me you are a flower mom

So delicate and fair.
You've given fragrance to my life

By simply being there.

Anne Peterson

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a love card, or sat in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part!

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
