Obituary

Anthony Leon Curry, a Harlem native, born in Mount Sinai Hospital, New York, New York on December 27th, 1966 to Thadia Curry and Leon Davis.

He attended Rice High School where he graduated and relocated to Atlantic City, New Jersey. He later attended Atlantic City Community College to obtain his degree in Human Services.

Anthony also known as “Big A”, “Bubba” and “Black” was family oriented and could light up any room with his presence and UNUSUAL sense of humor. He was loved by many.

Anthony was preceded by his father, Leon Davis and the mothers of his children, Michelle Buckman and Shamanika.

He leaves to mourn: his rock, his everything, his mother, Thadia Curry; his children, Anthony Curry, Leon Curry, Alisha Buckman, Antia Curry and Emonni Curry; his only brother, Javaughn Curry; his beloved grandmother, Gladys Whitehurst; his sisters, Brandy, Tawanda, Yolanda, Destini, Diamond and Ashli; his nieces he loved as his own, Destiny and Maureen; a host of cousins and relatives he bonded with and loved, Rashema, Morgan, Brinell, Tanya and Andre; his aunts, Yvette, Auntie GG, and Beverly; his childhood friend and mother of his first born, Monica Hart; his bestfriend and mentor, Joan Cookie Tinsley; the mother of his children, April; his second mother, Shelvie; and a host of grandchildren he was active with on a daily basis and took pride and honor simply having the title of GRANDDAD.

May he rest in God's arms. We love and thank you!
We will truly miss you.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
