Obituary

Estela Zuniga Garcia was born on October 26, 1938 in Guatemala Central America to the late Vicente Zuniga Najera and Adelina Garcia Morales. She was one of the oldest of 4 children. At an early age, her mom became a widow so, Estela helped to take care of her younger siblings while her mom was at work and grandma ran the local family owned grocery store.

She came to New York in the early 60'S when she was in her early 20'S. She soon met Ambrose Enriquez and gave birth to two daughters Brenda and Cynthia Enriquez.

Estela loved flowers. Roses were her favorite. She enjoyed cooking and watching novelas. Her favorite hobbies were sewing and crocheting for her grandchildren. She often talked about her childhood years while drinking a cup of coffee.

Estela was a loving and caring daughter, sister, mother, grandmother and a friend. She dedicated most of her life to taking care of her children and grandchildren. She was a matriarch of her family. Always putting other's needs before hers and willing to help others in need. She had a great sense of humor and made others smile even on a sad day.

Her famous words when faced with difficult times were "everything in life has a solution except death" "don't lose faith because for Jesus Christ our savior, nothing is impossible". Her faith and love in God are what made her the amazing, strong, caring, loving, powerful and resilient woman that she was.

Estela was preceded in death by two siblings, Roberto Zuniga Garcia and Carlos Enrique Zuniga Garcia. She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Brenda Enriquez and Cynthia Enriquez. Grandchildren, Augustine Villegas, Jazmine Villegas, Armando Alvarez, Leslie Singleton, Terrell Singleton. A sister, Leticia Castillo. Nieces, Lucrecia Zuniga, Lorena Zuniga, Claudia Castillo, Monica Castillo and Michelle Castillo. Also, special cousin Vilma Astorga, other relatives and friends.

Come To Me

God saw her getting tired,
A cure was not to be.
He wrapped her in his loving arms
and whispered "Come to Me"
With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away.
Although, we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay
A loving heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest
God proved to us that
He only takes the best.
