Obituary

Frederick Carr was born on September 26, 1959, to Carrie B. Carr And late Freddie A. Carr.

Frederick was raised in Jersey City, New Jersey and years later he relocated to East Orange, New Jersey where he was known by most of his friends as "SOSO". Frederick acquired the name "SOSO" from his elementary grade school classmates due to his welter weight small frame. The name stuck even after he gained weight to play football and baseball.

Frederick had several job positions that he succeeded very well. Frederick was an active person, he excelled in sports and received several awards.

"SOSO" was a special young man with a "GREAT" personality, left to treasure his memories are Mother Carrie Carr, Sister Ruth Fair, Daughter Regina Lester, Son Frederick Carr Jr, Nephew Torian Fair, Two Granddaughters Zakiyah Carr and A'ziah Carr, One Grandson Zamier Carr, Two great Nieces Nylah and Rebecca Fair And loving friend Regina Simmons.

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
