Obituary

Ms. Hortense Hunter, known to us all as Aunt Harty, age 73 of Brooklyn New York passed away Tuesday morning April 27th, 2021 at KingsBrook Jewish medical center.

She was born March 22nd, 1948 in Kings County Brooklyn, New York, an older twin daughter and 8 of 9 children of the late Sarah and Glen Hunter. As an adult she worked most of her life for the internal revenue service as a tax advocate. She retired then went on to pursue her love for education and teaching children, working as an educator at PS. 203 and PS. 207. Hortense never married nor had children, but she was everyone's beloved Aunt Harty.

Hortense leaves to cherish her memory: her four living siblings; Edna Johnson, her 3 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren; Glen Hunter Jr., his 3 children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren; her sister Ida Royal, her 8 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren; her sister Bertha Alston, her 7 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren; her living siblings spouses and in laws; her 4 deceased siblings, Gurtrude Johnson, 8 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, Louis Hunter, his child; her brother Benjamin Hunter, his 4 children, grandchildren and great grandchildren; her twin brother Harry Hunter, his child and grandchild. Her dear friends and relatives.

“Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.”

"Your life and mine shall be valued not by what we take... but by what we give."

“What are you going to do ? Linger on the pain of the past or move on and build on your many triumphs of your future.”

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
