

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories
Your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken
And nothing will be the same,
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

Legacy of Love

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of you to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when the day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly
down the ways,
of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that you leave behind when the day is done.

Lovingly submitted by Mazie E. Mungin

Obituary

George H. Mungin, Jr. was born on Daufuskie Island, South Carolina on June 4, 1933 to the late George and Mamie Mungin. He was the fourth of five children, with three of his sisters preceding him in death – Ethel Robinson, Beulah Hamilton and Georgia Mae Major. He is survived by his youngest sister, Lucille Satterfield. On Sunday, May 2, 2021, the trumpet sounded and God saw best to call George home to eternal rest.

George was educated in Daufuskie Island, South Carolina at Mary Fields School, and he also attended school in Hilton Head, South Carolina. George also lived for a few years in Savannah, Georgia. In 1953, George moved to New York. During his lifetime George held many jobs. He worked as an expert cement finisher and also at Metropolitan Hospital for a brief period of time where he met Mazie. George left Metropolitan Hospital to work at General Motors in Tarrytown, N.Y. as a lineman for 15 years until his retirement in 1993.

Late in his life George accepted the Lord and was baptized.

George was the loving husband of Mazie E. Mungin. They were together and married for over 50 years and he was lovingly known as “Papadot.” George was the father of seven children – George Jr., Lucy (Sharon), Renee, Denise, Antoinette (Anna), Evette and Monique. George was devoted to his wife, his children and his family. He was the person everyone called on for advice, and there were plenty of times he bailed people out of sticky situations.

George was always a sharp dresser, polishing his shoes to the point one could almost see their reflection. He was also famous for his many hats – you never saw him without wearing a hat which he purchased from a milliner at least twice a year. He loved to laugh – he always had a smile on his face - and he knew how to tell a story with a great sense of humor. He loved playing games of chance and he also was a great cook. He was a staunch family man – he loved his family.

George also loved to travel. His preferred mode of travelling was by car. He loved to drive his car – no matter the distance – and he kept his car spotless. He eventually did consent to a trip by plane to Barbados where he took a day trip on a catamaran. He surprised us all when he jumped from the boat and swam to the beach. He had a very good time and spoke about the trip for a long time after – but he also said he would never fly again! George also went on several cruises. One year he cruised to Bermuda where he spent time with his Bermuda family. It was a great time for all!

George leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, Mazie, sister, son, daughters, grandsons, granddaughters, great-grandsons, great-granddaughters, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, numerous cousins and friends too numerous to mention.
