Mae Ellen Lee (Rozier) was born on August 12, 1934 in Chauncey, Georgia to the late Emmanuel Rozier and Nellie Henry Rozier (Payne). She was educated in the Elizabeth School system where she met and married Claude Lee. During Claude's time in the military the two began their family and had their first two children and later went on to have more.

Mae, worked for the Elizabeth Board of Education for many years and ended her career at Whitney Young Day Care Center in Elizabeth, New Jersey. She received her daycare teaching certification through Kean College in 1970. Mae retired as a beloved and well respected teacher. She also was a member of the Elizabeth Port Community Center where they planned events and trips; she served as hospitality planner for the seniors' bus rides.

Mae Lee affectionately known as Mother Mae Lee served as an amazing president of the usher board during her time of service at Christian Pentecostal Church of Christ under the late Bishop Willie M. Smith and Mother Constance Smith. She continued serving under Pastor Jerry Smith and Lady Sharonda Smith of Transcend Worship Center, Irvington New Jersey. Mother Mae Lee left New Jersey over two years ago to reside with her daughter Wilma Murray in North Carolina where she joined Pillar n Ground of Truth Ministries, COGIC, Zebulon, NC with Pastor James Parker where she became an active member.

Mae loved shopping she was a fashionista. She also enjoyed sewing and crocheting. She also had a love for traveling, attending the Payne family reunions, going on weekend and day trips and spending time with family.

Predeceased in death by her husband Claude Lee, a son Tracey E. Lee and her brother Thomas Robertson Jr.

Mae Lee leaves to cherish her memories, her daughters Claudette Paden, Janet Baker, Annette Johnson (NJ) Wilma Murray (NC). Grandchildren Jamil E. Paden (MA), Jamilla Nijah Paden (NJ); Marlon D. Lee (NC), Natasha M. Lee (NJ); Terrence E. Lee (NJ), Troy Lee (NJ), Tiffany C. Beaubien (NJ); Stacey K. Lee (CA), Jayda Lee (CA); Ronald Murray (NC), Kyron Murray (NC); twenty-two great-grandchildren and a host of family, friends, and honorary children.
