Obituary

Deborah (Deb) was born in The Bronx, NY on January 6, 1952 to Catherine and Maurice.

The New York Public School System was privileged to play a major roll in Deborah's education from kindergarten through high school.

As a child, She and her siblings spent their summers in Virginia with her grandmother, Mary Adams. Deb often shared those memorable experiences with her granddaughter, Shantel.

She was blessed with two children, Sam and Maurice.

Deb began working when she was 17. One of her major employers was Chicago International. However, she left there to relocate to Fork Union, VA, her mother's birth place. While living in Virginia, Deb joined and was baptized in Jesus' Name and became a devoted member of House Of God in Cobb Ham.

She later returned to The Bronx and worked for The Department Of Mental Health And Hygiene in the Early Intervention Division, until she retired after almost 20 years.

She always stayed connected to a church. Her latest church membership was with The Universal Church in New York.

After a long day Deb loved to settle down with her Vanilla Ice Cream. Her favorite holiday was Christmas and she enjoyed decorating and wrapping gifts. She loved to travel and one of her favorite places to visit was Hawaii, she even entertained the idea of living there. She enjoyed math problems, crossword puzzles, reading religious materials, studying the Bible and writing her book about her personal experiences with God, which was almost completed. She donated to various organizations to help others less fortunate and often discussed wanting to work for the Mercy Ship and adopting a child from overseas.

THANK YOU!!!

THERE ARE NOT ENOUGH WORDS TO FULLY EXPRESS OUR HEARTFELT
THANKS FOR THE SYMPATHY, LOVE AND SUPPORT YOU HAVE EXTENDED TO OUR FAMILY DURING THIS TIME OF LOSS! MAY GOD
BLESS YOU AND KEEP YOU IN HIS GRACES!

WITH LOVE,
THE FAMILY
