Obituary

Janet Hughes was born on January 22nd, 1957. The daughter of Mary and Floyd Hughes who are both born in Allendale, South Carolina. Her father served in the U.S. Army during World War II as a cook. Janet was raised in Harlem, NY. On June 11th, 1991, she married Mark Anthony Williams then moved to East Flatbush Brooklyn, NY where she raised three children, Samantha Nicole Williams, Luke Anthony Williams and Junior Mark Williams. She later lived the rest of her life in Hicksville, NY and got to see the birth of her granddaughter, Serenity Jai Black, the growth of a future generation.

Janet Williams had a very giving heart. She was a loving person and always knew how to smile. She was there for whoever with open arms and a great laugh. She had quiet strength that was very loud that people could see without words. No matter what situation, good or bad when asked how she was doing her response was always "I'm doing fine, how about yourself?" and that speaks to her quiet strength. Janet loved to dance to some good music. She was an amazing cook, always getting down in the kitchen and teaching her kids along the way. Her family was her life and they love her for everything that she's done.

Janet was preceded in death by: mother, Mary Hughes; father, Floyd Hughes; brothers, Floyd Hughes, Jr., James Hughes and Jesse Hughes; and sisters, (name unknown) and Mary Ann Hughes.

Janet is survived by: her brother, Frank Hughes; loving husband Mark Anthony Williams; daughter, Samantha Nicole Williams; sons, Luke Anthony Williams and Junior Mark Williams; granddaughter, Serenity Jai Black; and a host of family and friends.

She will be missed and loved by all.

Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that
GOD WAS GOING TO CALL YOUR NAME
In life we loved you dearly.
IN DEATH WE DO THE SAME.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did NOT GO ALONE;
for part of us went with you,
THE DAY GOD CALLED YOU HOME.

You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.

OUR FAMILY CHAIN IS BROKEN and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
THE CHAIN WILL LINK AGAIN.
