Obituary

Kehlman was born July 10th 2020 to Elizabeth Valdes and Marco Santiago in Harlem, NY.

Despite his short time on earth, he lit up a room and made everyone smile. He kept a smile on his face and laughed often. He enjoyed smoothies and watching cartoons.

He was called home March 30th 2021. Kehlman leaves behind five siblings Karena Galindo, Kyarah Oliveras, Keh-Leannah Santiago, Marco Santiago Jr, and Kemaih Santiago. His extended family Carol King, Kevin King, Desiree King, the King family and a host of relatives and friends. Kehlman's smile opened the hearts of everyone who crossed his path and we all will miss him deeply.

"I'll lend you for a while a child of mine," He said.

"For you to love the while he lives and mourn for when he's dead.

It may be six or seven years, or twenty-two or three,

But will you, till I call him back, take care of him for me?

He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and should his stay be brief,

You'll have his lovely memories as solace for your grief."

"I cannot promise he will stay; since all from earth return,

But there are lessons taught down there I want this child to learn.

I've looked the wide world over in My search for teachers true

And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes I have chosen you.

Now will you give him all your love, not think the labor vain,

Nor hate Me when I come to call to take him back again?"

"I fancied that I heard them say, "Dear Lord, Thy will be done!

For all the joy Thy child shall bring, the risk of grief we run.

We'll shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may,

And for the happiness we've known, forever grateful stay;

But should the angels call for him much sooner than we've planned,

We'll brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand!"
