Obituary

Barry Fulton was born on January 29, 1949 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Bernice and Bennie Fulton. Barry was raised in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn and he was educated in the New York City Public School system.

Barry had a love for fashion and beauty and attended Wilfred Academy Beauty School during his early adult years.

Barry could be seen adorning the most fashionable suits and shoes. He had a love for music and singing and he could hold a pretty good note. He loved to dance and party and BOY was he the life of the party! He was suave and debonair and touched the lives and hearts of all that knew him.

Barry loved to reminisce and tell stories about his childhood. He used to make jokes about how he shined shoes just to make money. He was a no limit hustler who always kept a dollar and always provided for his family. Barry was never shy about sometimes making poor life choices, but he wanted to be an example and a teacher for those who came behind him. He often spoke of being the backslider, but he always found his way back to the Lord.

In 2004, Barry reconnected with the Lord and began attending Bronx Community Baptist Church and was baptized in 2005.

Barry was like a cat with 9 lives. Nothing could get him down or stop him, even as he battled Cancer, he kept a positive vibe and lived with optimism.

On Friday, May 7, 2021, Barry heard the Lord's call and accepted his place in one of God's many mansions.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Sandra Hughes-Fulton; his five daughters, Ayesha, Ebony (Keith), Cheteara, Shatisha and Tawanna; eight grandchildren, Kyon, Dontae, Kaytlyn, Mariya, Jayla, Janyia, Jason Jr. and Ma'lani (who is expected to arrive in July 2021); one great-granddaughter, Cricket Sue; two sisters, Carol and Barbara; three sisters-in-law, Leitha, Thelma and Tiffany; three brothers-in-law, Kirkland, Maurice and William; his cousin and close friend, Brenda Nash; his two best friends/brothers, Rufus and James; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and friends.

We Will See You Again

Though we are now apart,
you are never far from our heart
When the wind blows, and the sun shines on our face
We will smile knowing it's you, sending your warm embrace
We never know the hour nor the day,
But, we know that you'll always be around in some way
We will see you again someday
For we always knew, the good weren't meant to stay
Fly high, party, dance, and sing
For heaven is in for a treat with the joy you bring Don't worry about us, we will all be fine
We will see you again, in God's time
We will miss you here, that I am sure
Be sure to greet us when it's our turn at Heaven's door
Though we will weep and cry
I know you will be here, by and by

Lovingly Submitted by Your Children
