Obituary

Bettye Faye Ware was born in Camp Hill, Alabama on January 12, 1936 to Hattie (Martin) and Clyde Ware. She was the third of seven children. Bettye graduated from Edward Bell High School in Camp Hill, Alabama in 1953, and studied to become a Nurse's Aide. Bettye attended the Sardis Baptist Church, with her family. She loved going to church with her sisters and attending various family events together. In High School, Bettye was an enthusiastic track runner, and was known to participate in Walk-a-tons for most of her adult life. She loved to help others and walked virtually everywhere she went for as long as she was able, well into her seventies.

Bettye married Hosie Rowe in 1956, and the two became proud parents of Connie Rowe, who was born on August 6th, 1957, and who departed this life at the age of 55 on May 18, 2013. Before her passing however, Connie made her mom even prouder when she had her own daughter Myshka Simeus, born on November 26, 1979. Myshka in turn made everyone proud with the birth of her own daughter Candice Alyssa Newcombe on November 2, 2010. All the women in this family were extremely close and always exuded a special kind of love that became the envy of everyone who knew them.

Bettye worked for Light Craft Manufacturing Company during the 1960's until she was unable to do so due to illness. Bettye did not let her illness debilitate her, but rather emboldened her and prompted her to action. She was determined to carry on, to help others with their challenges, and became involved with self help groups that blessed her to do something about her situation and others as well.

Betty was remarried in the 60's to Allsee Millirons (affectionately known as "Papa") by Myshka and Candice and simply "Al" by everyone else). Al was a proud addition to the family, and departed Bettye on April 3, 2020.

Bettye Faye Ware Millirons will be sorely missed by everyone for her determination, her tenacity, and her sweet spirit. Her legacy shall carry on through her granddaughter Myshka, her great granddaughter Candice, and the wonderful family she leaves behind. She is survived not only by Myshka and Candice, but also by her devoted sisters Allene Jackson and Fannie Johnson, and her brother Palmer Ware, as well as a host of relatives, friends, and loved ones.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
