Obituary

Haroldine Jamielah Gantt was born in Jersey City, New Jersey, on October 27, 1963 to Roosevelt Gantt and Florence Williams.

She was a lifelong resident of Jersey City where she was educated at P.S.#40, Henry Snyder High School and St Peter's College (University). Haroldine was known to excel in High School where she received several awards and would often make local news in the Jersey Journal.

After college, she began working in Manhattan as a receptionist for several years. In the 80's Haroldine began her legal career under Francis Antonin Esq. She would later go on to work at The Superior Court of New Jersey as a legal secretary for Judge Hornstein and later Judge Antonin.

Sadly, Haroldine was diagnosed with a mental illness that halted her career goal to become an attorney. Despite her illness Haroldine would later go on to receive her Culinary Arts degree from Hudson County Community College. She was also an active Notary Public for the State of New Jersey.

On May 11, 2021, Haroldine passed away peacefully at home.

Haroldine is preceded in death by her parents Roosevelt Gantt and Florence Williams, two sisters Yvonne Ingram and Cheryl Nicholson, three special nieces Joette, Jaheera and Julana. She leaves to mourn her brother Roosevelt C. Gantt (Demetric), two uncles Joseph Williams and John Williams, one brother-in-law Joseph Nicholson, 13 nieces and nephews: Lesharn, Josef, Joel, Jasmine, Jalal, Jamir (Diandra), Jahid, Jamillah, Jakiyyah, Shaheerah, Roosevelt II, Zaiver, Ziyah, a host of beloved cousins on the Gantt and Williams side, great nieces and nephews and other family members that she adored.
