Obituary

Sandra Cager was a caring mother, sister and friend. She left this world suddenly on May 6, 2021 at the young age of 58. Sandra was born to Shirley Cager on May 16, 1962 in the Bronx, New York.

She attended the New York City Public School system in the Bronx where she excelled in math and basketball. Sandra loved to cook, laugh and play games. She cared for so many and gave her heart to everyone ready to accept it. Her silly humor lit the room on fire. She knew how to uplift your spirits, put a smile on your face and curse you out at the same time. She was a true fighter, friend and loving mother.

Sandra leaves to mourn her memory one son, Tyran Cager; mother, Shirley Cager; one brother, Morris; cousins, Jackie, Brenda and Melvin; many adopted children along the way to mention a few, Willie, Jordan, Andre, Tasha, Aaliyah, Jamel, Aisha, AJ, Torrie and Jasai; and a special thanks to the Jones family for the last 15 years who have become our second family.

We love and miss you Sandra, a/k/a Spoon and El Blue.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now; I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've now found that peace at the close of day.

> If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, and I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift-up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now and He set me free.

Acknowledgements

The family of Sandra Cager wishes to express their sincere gratitude for the support, prayers, expressions of sympathy and acts of love and kindness during their time of bereavement.
