Obituary

Nadine Marie Lloyd, affectionately known as “Nae Nae” to her loved ones, was born on July 17th, 1956, to the late Angel Lloyd and Mary Grady at Metropolitan Hospital New York, New York, where she was educated through the New York City Public School System. On Monday, May 10th, 2021, an Angel of silence came into Calvary Hospital and sealed the lips of Nadine, then gently bore her soul out of its veil of pain and woe to a place of Peace and rest. Nadine has gone on to join her relatives who have preceded her including sisters, Catherine Johnson and Phyllis Grady, brother, Vincent Diggs and first love, Frederick Tomer.

Nadine married Paul White in 1976. Paul White preceded Nadine home to the Blessed Lord.

Nadine was well known in her community as the “Candy Lady”, she had the biggest “sweet tooth” and always kept candy with her all the time. People who met her were captivated by her “bubbly personality.” She loved music, dancing, singing, cooking, movie night with the family and was well known as a prankster. She had a free spirit, that was loving, charming, easy-going, and very outspoken. She had the ability to make you laugh even if you were sad. She raised three beautiful daughters with patience, discipline and humility. She could always be found caring for her children and her grandchildren. Nadine was adored by all who knew her, her smile was just as beautiful as her personality. No matter what the situation she always tried to be supportive.

“Devoted daughter, sister, mother, aunt, grandmother and great-grandmother” is how others will refer to Nadine when it comes to family. She found time for others before herself. Her “greatest joys were her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.” Despite her devotion to her family, Nadine had a long career as a caretaker with the New York City Housing Authority and retired in January 2014.

Nadine leaves to celebrate her life: three daughters, Tonia, Phyllis and Janet; nine grandchildren, Simone, Allen, Tyrone, Ranell, Darius, Akira, Anika, Andre and Aliya; four great-grandsons, Nathan, Aiden, Avery and King; two nieces, Tonia and Ishena; one nephew, Troy; two nephews-in-law, Mark and Ma’trice; goddaughter, Yolanda Oliver; godson, Christian Mayzck; (grandson through marriage) Kaneeyl; and love, Stephen Jones.

Nadine will be deeply missed by her family and all who loved and knew her.

God Called Your Name So Softly

God called your name so softly,
that only you could hear
And no one heard the footsteps
Of angels drawing near.

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.

You're always close beside us, in everything we do,
You were our greatest treasure, God's gift to us was you.

We will always remember that way you looked,
the way you talked and smiled,
The little things you said and did to make our lives worthwhile.

Each time we look at your picture,
you seem to smile and say,

Don't be sad but courage take and love each other for my sake.

Just a prayer from the family to you,
just a memory fond and true,

In our hearts you will stay forever
because we thought the world of you.
