Obituary

The sun shined a little brighter than usual for Nicolette Drew and Stebbin H. Anderson III as they welcomed their baby boy Stebbin H. Drew into the world on January 14, 1984. Stebbin aka Scooter was the oldest amongst the 8 siblings he had; Tyrell Anderson, the late Hassan S. Johnson III, the late Hassanah N. Drew, Malik Drew, Antoinette Williams, Bilal Drew, Michell Drew, and Rakiba Drew. As a kid Scooter attended Stockholm Elementary in East Orange, NJ.

He enjoyed playing basketball, gaming, going to the beach, fishing with his late grandfather, Stebbin H. Anderson II, Scooter had a deep passion for fixing cars. Among his many talents, he loved a challenge. He had a special love for his grandparents Wayne Drew Sr. and Mary Anderson who became more like his mother. Stebbin was one that lived free and was fearless.

His life changed once he became a father to his daughters, Zadazah Naomi Johnson-Touchette and Iminaye Nicolette Drew, nothing made him more proud and had given him a sense of fulfillment. To some he was a brother, friend, cousin, grandson, worker, or even a stranger. One thing for certain, he had a heart of gold and was reliable, anyone in need he found a way to provide and did so with love. Whomever he's encountered, he left his mark.

Stebbin leaves to mourn; his father Stebbin H. Anderson III, grandparents Wayne Drew Sr. and Mary Anderson; his daughters, Zadazah Naomi Johnson-Touchette, and Iminaye Nicolette Drew; siblings Tyrell Anderson, the late Hassan S. Johnson III, the late Hassanah N. Drew, Malik Drew, Antoinette Williams, Bilal Drew, Michell Drew, and Rakiba Drew and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Temporary Goodbye

By Antoinette Williams

The love you had for me was tried and true.
Remember me just as the sky is Blue.
Although my time here on earth was limited,
My love for you could and would never be tainted.
My body is now at rest,
My mind, spirit, and soul are now at peace.
So please don't be upset.
I now have a home in the sky...
This life I had down here with you, I had to say goodbye.
Although with me is where you'd want to be....
I was called to fulfill a bigger mission.
In my heart forever,
For an eternity we will always be together.
Good bye for now!
