Obituary

It is with deep sorrow that we thank God for the life and memories of our devoted brother, Howard Evans, who was born to the late Woodrow Evans and Ada Simmons on July 19, 1934 in New York.

Howard departed this life on Thursday afternoon, May 13, 2021.

Howard grew up in New York City and graduated from Douglas Junior High School on June 27, 1949 in New York, then from Chelsea Vocational High School on June 1952 in New York.

Howard retired from New York City Bookbinding Co.

Howard served in the Armed Forces of the United States Army as Specialist Four and was Honorably Discharged on March 23, 1959.

Howard was a very likable person. He loved sports, bowling, which he was in a league, basketball (Knicks fan), baseball (Yankee fan) and football. He was also a manager of the Little League Baseball Team in Harlem. He was an advocate historian of African and American history. He enjoyed traveling to Maryland to visit his family with his stepfather, Archie and to visit the sites in Washington, DC.

Later in life he attended the Hamilton Grange Senior Citizen Center at the Convent Avenue Baptist Church in Harlem, NY. He enjoyed the food there. He loved the cake and ice cream and he met new friends there.

During a brief illness, he was a resident at the Pelham Parkway Nursing Home in Bronx, NY beginning November 20, 2019. He liked the staff and made friends with the residences.

Those left to cherish fond memories of Howard are: his sister, Yvonne Foulks of the Bronx, NY; brothers, Sam Taylor of Forrestville, MD, Richard Taylor of the Bronx, NY and Alfred Taylor of the Bronx, NY; niece, Gloria Taylor of PA; nephew, Daryl Foulks of NY; brother-in-law, Phillip Dunn; nephew-in-law, Peter Alevanbre of PA; sisters-in-law, Azalee Evans, Hyecha Wilburn of MD and Brenda Taylor of Bronx, NY; and a host of cousins, aunts and friends.

Brother, we all loved you so much, we will miss you forever.
