Obituary

Pauline Whitaker was born on January 29, 1938 in Augusta, Georgia. In her early 20's, she left Augusta and moved to New York City. She met and eventually married Donald Whitaker.

Pauline was employed with The New York Telephone Company, where she worked as the Executive Secretary for 25 years until she retired.

Upon retirement she would go to the Kennedy Center in Harlem to play bingo and do exercise classes. Without her husband of over 50 years she became reclusive. The last memory of her was of all three of us laughing on the floor with her. (She slid off the bed and fell on the floor.)

Pauline passed away peacefully in her bed. She will be laid to rest next to her husband at Calverton National Cemetery.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
