Obituary

Robert Bobby Willis was born on September 18, 1940 to the late Luther and Ceola Willis in Elizabeth, NJ. Robert accepted Jesus Christ as his savior at an early age and always believed.

He was the oldest of five children. He graduated from Jefferson high school in Elizabeth NJ and shortly after began his career as a professional local and long distance driver.

Robert worked for Coca Cola trucking company, Ryder trucking company and New Jersey Transit bus company until he retired.

Robert enjoyed spending time with his family always supporting and cheering them on to be the best in whatever path they chose in life. Robert was a hilarious storyteller of all his adventures in life, Robert enjoyed family gatherings on holidays, anniversaries and birthdays, loved music and went to numerous live plays as a young man.

Robert has two daughters Anita and Sandra whom he loved, protected and kept by his side after the untimely death of their mother when they were 3 and 5 years old. He taught them at an early age about God and to pray.

He was also a devoted grandfather to his grandchildren Shonda, Keyonna(who proceeded him in death), Desaray, and Brandon, Great grandfather to Jahsir and Tariq. and Great Great- grandfather to Aizen and Zoi. A beloved and cherished brother to Rev. Glen Willis of Florida, Carol Willis, Debbie Willis and Lucille Willis- Bailey all of Nevada. A beloved uncle to a host of nieces and nephews in NJ, TX and NV.

He will surely be missed and we thank God for the time we had with him.

"To Our King"

You reigned in our lives with power and love
You were our Dad sent from above
We were proud of you as you stood handsome and 6'5 tall Lord knows as we gazed upon you we never thought you'd fall
You were always there right by our side not like other dads who run and hide
You had all the attributes of a king and you were strong,
We'll be together again it won't be long
Our heavenly father gave us his best so now our king you go on and rest Fly high our king above the clouds and into heaven for we submit to the will of our heavenly father we love and we miss you rest on our king rest on!!!!
