

A Daughter's Crown
To my Beautiful Daughter words can't express how much I am going to miss you.
This is so hard for me but you are a wonderful blessing,
A treasure from above.
Your laughter warmth and special charm,
Your thoughtfulness and love.

Molly you bring a special joy,
That comes from deep inside.
You filled my heart with pride.

With every year that passes,
You are more special than before.
Through every stage, through every age,
I love you even more.

No words can describe the warm memories,
The pride and gratitude, too.
That comes from having a daughter,
To love and to cherish....just like you!

Love you Molly Bird

Ma
Hey Ma, we just want you to know that we love you more than words can explain. You're not here physically but you'll always be in our hearts, and your spirit will live on forever. It was so much more for us to do but God called you home, so we will make sure that we will do everything that we were supposed to do. Fly high mommy and rest peacefully and until we meet again watch over us my guardian angel.
Love your 2 heartbeats
Justin & Jemal

"Molly"
I'm constantly thinking of you my Life will never be the same the tears fall quickly just hearing your name. The night are sleepless, dreams out of reach crying in my pillow to you I beseech surrounded by family I still feel alone my heart is so empty this pain I must own. I wish I can hug you and just see your face. But now I have memories to stand in your place
I love you Sister

Obituary

On Monday, May 24, 2021 God called our loving angel Shemal Simone (Molly) into eternal rest. Shemal was born December 11, 1968 to Barbara Jean McKinney Robinson and to the late James Edward Robinson (Jimmy) of Passaic NJ. As a child Shemal attended St. Nicholas RC School in Passaic, NJ; Passaic County Technical Institute in Wayne, NJ; she then transferred to Passaic High School where she graduated and was a proud member of the class of 1986.

At the tender age of 2 ½ years old Molly attended Dottie Locker School of Dance in Passaic, NJ until the age of 14 years old. It was during these years Molly was introduced to the love of Jazz, Tap and Ballet where she learned to move with such poise and grace. She later continued her love for dance at Niki Simmon School of Dance in Passaic, NJ. In June of 1977 Molly was crowned the winner of Little Miss Black Passaic.

Shemal accepted the Lord as her personal Savior at very young age. She was a lifelong faithful member of Calvary Baptist Church of North Jersey at Garfield, where she whole heartedly served on the Usher Board and the Praise Dance team. Shemal was a committed and dedicated servant who loved her church and church family.

Shemal started working with Passaic County Workforce. Throughout her career Shemal always had a great love for working with children; her work experience consisted of Picture People and Day Care Center for the Passaic Housing Authority. In 2010 Shemal started as a Teacher Assistant for Kidz University of Garfield, New Jersey under the guide of Director Angela Burgos. Because of her love, commitment, and passion for children in 2015 she was promoted to Director Assistant.

Molly as she was affectionately called by many always loved spending time with her family whether at annual family gatherings, backyard cookouts or impromptu meet ups with her classmates; Molly always had a great time.

In her spare time she loved writing poetry and listening to music especially her favorite songstress Anita Baker. We will dare not forget she was a die-hard fan of the San Francisco 49ers.
