Obituary

ADRIAN DEWINDT affectionately known as Ace was born on September 30, 1947 to Archie Jack DeWindt and Mattie Marie Garvin-DeWindt in Manattan. Adrian attended elementary school and Junior High School n Manhattan and High School in the Bronx. He graduated from high School in 1968. He worked on many jobs during his lifetime. He started working with the Board of Education in September 13, 1982 as an School Safety Officer. He worked there until he retired on December 15, 2007.

Ace was a very dedicated employee. He was a hard worker. He NEVER missed a day from work. He was loved by all the students and co-workers in the school.

After he retired he continued to serve people. He joined the Tenants Board in the Senior Citizen Housing Development where he lived. He made sure things was taken care is his building. He was elected as Vice President of the Board. Then he joined The Police Academy for Community Affairs where he met Officer Lee Stanton, who became his buddy and friend. He graduated from there 2019.

Ace had many friends and several close friends such as Nora Nolan, Faye Williams Dorothy Brown, Deborah Simmons, Chery Barclay, Community Affair Officer, Lee Stanton and Vanessa Williams, who made him the godfather of her son Brandon Flores and Henry Jordan. His "Bestie" was Pat Malone who passed away in 1982. Ace took on the responsibility of helping her raise her three kids, Tony, Rita and Michelle whom he remained close to until his passing.

Adrian was an compassionate, caring, and lovable person. He was always looking for a way to help people. He loved socializing with people . He was an happy fun loving person. Adrian had no children however, he had many nephews and neices that he was very close to. He loved music and was a great dancer. He was always THE LIFE OF THE PARTY!

Adrian was preceased by: Archie Jack DeWindt Sr. (Father) Mattie Marie Garvin DeWindt (Mother) Siblings: Arthur DeWindt, Archie DeWindt Jr., Mary DeWindt-Williamson, Anthony DeWindt, Alberta DeWindt-Neyland-Morello and Charles Linwood DeWindt.

Surviving Sibling: Katrina DeWindt-Brown-Peterson (Sister) and a host of nephew, nieces, and cousins.

Adrian was a loving son, brother, uncle and friend. He touched many people hearts during his life. He will truly be Missed! He will always be Loved and Remembered.
