Obituary

Corey Williams known to most as “Lil Roc” was born on March 23, 1978 in New Brunswick, New Jersey to Bobby Williams and Debra Rittman Williams. He was one of five children: Robert, Mark, Darolyn and Jamie Williams and probably the most rambunctious of the bunch.

Corey was raised in the Parkside neighborhood of Franklin Township where he received his early education. Corey was always an adventurous child that loved to be outside. As a kid some even lovingly referred to him as “Nature boy” as he would find animals and bring them home as pets; snakes, turtles - you name it! But he really loved dogs. Corey was also known for being strong and had an athletic build. Because of his personality and his stature he was protection for a lot of people. If he loved you, he was going to protect you in any way he could.

At the age of 17 Corey became a father to his daughter Quatisha Hill. Although a young dad, he knew that he wanted to be the best father he could be and he kept his little girl with him a majority of the time.

In 1997 Corey met Zarinah by chance as he stopped to speak with common acquaintances. Their relationship was nothing short of a whirlwind and in 1999 they welcomed their first child, Sincere Williams. He was their dream come true and their only child for nearly 18 years until surprisingly they welcomed their daughter Janaé Williams in 2016, she is his spitting image and closest sidekick. A couple years later in 2018 the family relocated to Monroe Township.

After a 20 year courtship Corey and Zarinah married amidst a pandemic on August 8, 2020 in a private intimate ceremony at the family home in Piscataway New Jersey; to which all his children and their grandchild attended and participated in their special day. He so loved Zarinah and although tried to remain cool, all those in attendance saw the happiness and emotions that they shared together.

As a past time, Corey enjoyed fishing at the local parks and waterways and doing anything with his hands. He was a master barber, an extremely gifted handyman and the neighborhood mechanic. If someone needed a cut, something went wrong or needed fixing they called Corey! Corey went on to establish Able Hands Handyman LLC, which included landscaping, power washing, painting and small renovation services.

Corey was a good, loving, kind and caring friend. He sent early morning texts to his close friends and relatives to check in and make sure those he cared about most were good. His spirit was kind and humble and his personality was charismatic and magnetic and he was extremely funny. He was a special soul, one of a kind.

Above all Corey valued family. The family he was born into and the family he created with friends. He was crazy about his kids and was a proud husband.

Corey leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife Zarinah, daughters Quatisha and Janaé, son Sincere and grandson Carter; father Bobby Williams of North Brunswick, NJ; brothers Robert (Veronica) Williams of Staten Island, NY, Mark (Amina) Williams, Jamie (Shakeerah) Williams of Franklin Township New Jersey, Sister Darolyn (John) Daniels of North Brunswick and a host of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends. This soldier will be deeply missed.
