Obituary

Florence Annette Jackson-Herring was born on March 24, 1956 in Bellevue Hospital in New York, NY to the late Gertrude Jackson and Leon Thomas.

Annette attended Mabel D. Bacon High School. She later transferred and graduated from Julia Richman High School. She then went on to attend Mid Manhattan College, where she obtained a degree in Stenography.

Annette worked for DDS warehouse for 3 years. She then went on to start her career as a postal clerk for the last 21 years, which she loved and enjoyed.

Annette had a very contagious laugh and a smile that would light up a room. She loved and adored her husband and family, they came first no matter the situation. She enjoyed doing things such as recording movies and television shows while eating buckets of ice. She loved eating seafood and she had a thing for drinking Summer Colada Ciroc.

Annette enjoyed spending quality time with her husband. They went to concerts and plays, and they loved sitting in the park by the water. She was always on the go, from Broadway shows, seafood feast, to the yearly weekend getaways. She preferred to have fun, rather than sit home on the couch. Annette just wanted to enjoy life with her family.

Annette was always the life of anything she attended, bringing her old school moves to the dance floor she would literally out dance anyone. Her smile, her style, her personality and presence will truly be missed.

Annette is preceded in death by her parents, Gertrude Jackson and Leon Thomas; her brother, Milton Branch; one nephew, Milton Branch, Jr.; one daughter-in-law, Dana; and her in laws, Louis and Jacob Herring.

Annette leaves to cherish her husband, Michael Herring; one brother, Ronald Jackson; her six children, Kendell, Shatanya, Ronelda, Christina, Sheryl (Sharnaa) and Dennell; one niece; four nephews; twelve grandkids; thirteen great grands; and a host of cousins, great nieces, great nephews, family, friends and co-workers.

I Never Left You

I watch you every day
I am always very near
I know deep in your heart
You realize I am here
I watch you while you sleep
In your bed at home
I hear you when you cry for me
When you're all alone
You may not understand
The reason I am gone
But I will never leave you
I am here to keep you strong
Talk to me I can hear you
Though you may not see
We share an unbroken bond
That will always be
Death won't keep us apart
For our love is forever
Just remember me in your heart
And one day we'll be together
Live your life and live it full
Don't you waste a single day
Remember I am always with you
Every step of the way.
So hold me close within your hearts
And that's where I will remain
To walk and guide you through your lives
Until we meet again.
