The Life and Legacy of Carol Sue Felder

Carol, mostly known as Sue was born May 21, 1943 in Charleston, SC daughter of Lurene Felder (Jenkins) and Stanley Creel both parents preceded her. She accepted the Lord as her personal Savior at an early age.

She obtained her high school diploma from Charles A. Brown in Charleston, SC. On January 18, 1966 she gave birth to a girl, her one and only child—Trina. To seek better advancement, she left Charleston, SC and moved to Jersey City, NJ in 1969 and later found employment at Petrie Stores Corporation in Secaucus, NJ where she worked for over 25 years. And have taken courses at Rutgers College in Newark, NJ. She also became a member of Soul Saving COGIC under the leadership of Elder Mell G. Lawrence. She would later return to Charleston, SC in 2006 for a short time to care for her underage nieces (Kiya Felder and Kerri Middleton) and nephews (Donnell Middleton and Darkese Rivers) after the passing of her sister Merverter Middleton and niece Patricia Felder. She became a member and Mother of the church at Livingword Family Worship Center International in 2007 under presiding Bishops and cousins Drs. Lawrence and Cynthia Jerideau. Then later returned to Jersey City, NJ in 2014 and to Soul Saving COGIC until her passing on Thursday, May 20th of heart failure at Palisades Medical Hospital. Always remember the love she shared, the wisdom and guidance she implanted. But more importantly, she loved the Lord...she served the Lord...she's now rejoicing and worshipping in the presence of the Lord.
