Obituary

If you are reading this, then I, Ida Mae (Rhett) Major have transitioned and I am in a better place “Hallelujah”.

I was born in Ridgeland, South Carolina, on February 27th, 1944 to Louise and James Johnson (Otto Bass). I attended Jasper County Public School. I loved fishing and crabbing.

I was blessed with three children, one son and two daughters. My daughters, Vanessa and Veronica preceded me in death.

I am survived by my son, Edward Lee Major; family friend, Richard C. Ashby; five grandsons, Kevin, Edward, Antione, Timothy and Jonathan; two granddaughters, Shatina Monique Major and Traeshawna Major; and seven great grandchildren; siblings, Louvenia (Bobby) Voyd, Reverend Odell Bass, Deloris Elizabeth Lester, Sandra Denise Arnold and Aurelius Devoux; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Tina, Timothy and Traeshawn, I want to thank each of you for all you have done for me. You all have been such a blessing to me, words cannot express how thankful I am for you. Tina, you will be the business woman you were born to be. Timothy, keep excelling in school and Traeshawn, keep dancing. Little Kevin, I am so grateful for the quality time I was able to spend with you. I am proud of you and I wish you the best with your basketball career. To my sister, Vinnie, we have always been together; lived together, fought together and cried together. I am sorry, but I have to take this journey alone. I love you and I will miss you.

I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free, miss me a little but not too long and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared, miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take and each one must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan. A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me, but let me go.

I am predeceased by my grandmother, mother, father, two daughters, Vernessa and Veronica; three sisters, Patsy, Lovette and Joann; and three brothers, Earl, Darnell and Phillip. They are all waiting for me. But this isn't forever, it's just for now, until we meet again. (And we will meet again).

John 14: 1-3

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God; believe also in me. My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.”
