Obituary

Edward (Eddie) Seda was born on October 22, 1951, and was the third child of Inocencio Seda and Sarah Lopez. He and his siblings was raised in the General Grant Houses in Harlem, New York. He obtained both elementary and high school education in New York.

Eddie worked as a Handyman at 885 Park Avenue for over 25 years and retired from there in 2010. He worked as the Superintendent downtown on East 72nd and 61st Street for many years, and continued to do so after retirement. He also was a Counselor and Mentor for several years.

In 1970, he met Nadine in the Grant Houses who he later on married on June 2, 1973 at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church and remained married until her passing in 2009. They had two children, Tiesha Seda and Hyrime Williams. He moved to the Rangel Houses in 1994 and remained living there until he entered the pearly gates on May 27, 2021 at the age of 69.

A champion of the underdog, Eddie always gave to charities and anyone in need of help. Eddie was a caring person, if he heard that you was in need of help, he always extended his hand out with no hesitation. He was very dependable and hardworking. Also, there was no way you could be around Eddie for more than ten minutes and he didn't have you laughing. Eddie had a great spirit. He loved to work with his hands and he could fix anything. He loved helping people, traveling, his dog, Chance which he called "Chancey Baby", watching TV, telling jokes, laughing, and socializing with people.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Nadine Seda; mother, Sarah Lopez; father, Inocencio Seda; and most recently his sister, Myrna Morales.

Eddie is survived by his daughter, Tiesha; son, Hyrime; brothers, Luis, Edwin and Tony; sisters, Sylvia, Miriam and Doris; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and extended families.

We love and miss you deeply. Your life was a blessing to us, and we thank you for letting us be apart of your life. Rest in peace.

I NEVER SAID GOOD-BYE

I never got the chance to say I love you,
I never got the chance to say I'll miss you.
Nobody told me that you were going to die,
It hurts, I never said GOOD-BYE.

Where are you now, please talk to me,
Show yourself and let me see.
I know that can't happen no matter how much I try,
All I wanted to do is say GOOD-BYE.

I hope that you are happy wherever you are,
I have you in my heart no matter how far.
To the heavens above, I wish I could fly,
Only to give you a warm GOOD-BYE.

I will remember you each day that I live,
You were such a good person with so much to give.
Such a privilege to have known you, no one can deny,
I think it might be time to say GOOD-BYE.

I will keep with me the good times that we shared,
I want you to know just how much I really cared.
Till we meet again, on God we must rely,
I love you, I miss you and for now, GOOD-BYE.
