Reflections of Life

Jesse James White was born in Asheboro, North Carolina. He was the son of the late Colonel Hazel White and Ollie Louise (Huggins) White. Jesse was the fourth of six children.

He attended school in Asheboro, NC. He also attended the Church of God of Prophecy Asheboro, NC.

Jesse relocated to Paterson in 1964. He was a self employed roofer, carpenter as well as a machine operator and mechanic with his father.

Jesse was very well known in the Fourth Ward neighborhood. He enjoyed hanging out with his homeboys.

He will be remembered as being loving and generous. He also loved sports, especially baseball and softball. He was a NY Yankees fan.

In addition to his parents he was preceded in death by his brother, George L. White and his sisters, Marilyn L. Wilcox and Jo Nancy White.

Jesse James White departed this life on Wednesday, June 2, 2021 in Paterson, NJ.

Jesse is survived by a sister, Carolyn Febres (Rene) of Asheboro, NC; a brother, Jonathan White retired police officer city of Paterson; and a special friend, John Butler. Jesse is also survived by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relative and friends.

Take Time

Take time to think;
it is the source of power.

Take time to read;
it is the foundation of wisdom.

Take time to play;
it is the secret of staying young.

Take time to be quiet;
it is the opportunity to see God.

Take time to be aware;
it is the opportunity to help others.

Take time to love and be loved;
it is God's greatest gift.

Take time to laugh;
it is the music of the soul.

Take time to be friendly;
it is the road to happiness.

Take time to dream;
it is what the future is made of.

Take time to pray;
it is the greatest power on earth.
