Obituary

Rahiem Evelyn was born March 22, 1985 to Leslie Evelyn and Ralph Jones.

He was raised in the Bronx, but also lived in California and in Virginia. Rahiem was the 2nd eldest of 4 children, and was a devoted father, son, uncle, and brother.

He worked in the restaurant industry for the last 5 years. Rahiem was very outgoing, and adventurous. He was an amazing story teller, and loved to crack jokes, he enjoyed hanging out and spending time with family.

He leaves behind to cherish his memories; his mother, Leslie Evelyn; father, Ralph Jones; two step fathers, Andrew Johnson and Melanio Diaz; two beautiful children, Noah and Mia; three sisters, Jasmine, Atikah, and Destiny; one brother, Ashuan; nephew, Kasaun; nieces, Diamond and Chloe; he also leaves grandfather's, a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now; I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work, to play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I've now found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, and I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift-up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now and He set me free.

Acknowledgements The family of Rahiem Evelyn would like to thank everyone for all acts of kindness given to them during this time of sorrow.
