Obituary

Deborah passed away peacefully from this life the morning of May 30, 2021 after a gradual decline in health. She was surrounded by family and caregivers during the last days of her life. Deborah was born in Newark, New Jersey October 19, 1955.

Deborah was educated in Newark public schools, in which she attended 18th Avenue Elementary School and graduated from Central High School. Deborah worked as a 911 operator for Newark Police department for some time then began to work for the Hilton at Short Hills, in which she worked there for over 20 years.

Her name is Deborah but we all call her Deb. Deb was loved by everyone. Whether family friends co-workers or strangers on social media. Deb had a smile that would light up a room. Her sense of humor was one of her many qualities. Being genuinely loving and caring came natural. To know Deb is to love Deb.

Deb loved writing, listening to music, and watching her shows on youtube, Netflix. Etc. She was a huge NFL Giants fan but she would make it clear that her grandson Elijuwan is her favorite football player. She had a soft spot for all of her grandchildren. The love she had for them was extra special. In her eyes they did no wrong. She lived a simple life and was never hard to please. Deb was one of the coolest women out here. She will truly be missed. Heaven has definitely gained an angel.

Deborah is survived by her late father Walter Grant, Mother Juanita Boulter-Veale, two daughters Tamika and Taneisha Boulter, Grandchildren Nyriq Batts, Armani Garry, Elijuwan Mack and Dream Richardson, Siblings Marshall Boulter, Andre Boulter, Sister In-law Michelle Craddock-Boulter, Calinda Griffin, Brother In-law Carlton Griffin, Maurice Boulter, late Gail Baldwin. A host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends that loves her.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
