Obituary

Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me. There is more than enough room in my father's home. If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am.

John 14:1-3

Lucinda Malone (Cindy) was born on Thursday, May 30th, 1940, to mother Adele Malone and father Z.B. Malone in Albany Georgia. At an early age she accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized at the Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Albany, Georgia under the leadership of Rev. A. W. Woodson Upon graduating from Monroe High School in 1958 she immediately followed her sister Juanita Malone- Parson (Boss) to New York. She found employment at a laundry facility and then worked as a home attendant for several years. She had three children: Kenneth Malone her oldest son, Adella Malone her daughter and Gordon Malone (Boobie) her youngest son, and considered Brenda Adams, Sandra Johnson, Carol Fuller, Robin Wilson, Yonda James, and Sonya Taylor her adopted daughters. She was a loving devoted mother who taught us how to work hard, be independent, caring, and considerate to others. She was an excellent cook, who loved entertaining, and travelled extensively with her sister on cruises. Her home was open every holiday and especially on birthdays. People looked forward to her parties, the music, and the smell of her food. There wasn't anything that Cindy couldn't cook, but she was most famous for her fried chicken, collard greens with fat-back and stacks of sweet potato pies.

A combination of a head and back injury due to an accident on the job forced her to stop working but she continued to take care of children for working parents. She nurtured them with loving care as if they were own. Some returned in later years to see her and spend time with her. Everyone was welcome at Cindy's house and one could always get a plate of food if hungry and wanted to eat. Everybody knew her and would come back to see her throughout the years no matter where they moved. She was a praying person, God-fearing and believed that God is the answer to all problems. Her motto was "May the service of giving speak for me, May the life I've lived speak for me", and Cindy's service and life surely speaks for her. She was known for her one-liners "there it is", "you ain't gonna worry me" and "wait ah minute, back up jack".

On June 3rd, 2021, Cindy transitioned to be with the Lord. She leaves to cherish her memories her devoted Children: Kenny, Della and Boobie, Big Jerry, Otis, Deon, Sandra, Brenda, Carol, Robin, Yonda and Sonya. Grandchildren: Jerry, Kevin, Aria, Gordon Jr (BJ) and Malanie, Sister: Juanita, Niece: Katrina, Nephews: Tommie and his wife Yolanda, and Michael, Grandnieces: Idorenyin, Arianna, Zaria, Grand-nephews: Kahleel, Othneil, Mikiel and Said, Cousins: Drs. Bill (Elois) Edge, Juanita (Carl, Sr.) White Dannette Williams, Felisa (Maurece) Jenkins, Yvette Martin, Tonya Cummings and Mattie Edge, and a host of friends including Ms. Madeline and Ms. Joanne, and other relatives. Lucinda Malone will be deeply missed but will forever remain in our hearts due to the abundance of love and friendship she provided.

Footprints

One night a woman had a dream. She dreamed she was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from her life. For each scene, she noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to her, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of her life flashed before her, she looked back at the footprints in the sand. She noticed that many times along the path of her life there was only one set of footprints. She also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in her life.

This really bothered her and she questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Acknowledgement

When a loved one transcends from life into death, family and friends pause to celebrate the victory of a life that will be forever cherished. Webster does not afford one with sufficient words to express the true meaning of what your presence has meant to us. The many prayers, expressions of sympathy, and kind gestures you have shown to us have helped to remind us that earth has no sorrow that faith cannot heal. Your kindness will never be forgotten.
