Obituary

Jackson Mascary was born on November 1, 1964 in Port-Au-Prince, Haiti to Carmita Mascary and Herard August. Jackson grew up with his 4 brothers and 4 sisters. After graduating from grade school, Jackson went on to work in the mechanic/technician field. In 1993, he married his wife Louna in Port Au Prince, Haiti. Together they raised four children: Cassandra, Salomon, Christopher and Marvin (Ricky).

In 2001, he and his family moved to the United States to start the next chapter in their lives. Jackson went on to work as a mechanic for various automobile companies such as BMW, Ford, and Chrysler. In his spare time he enjoyed working on cars, watching soccer and playing old school songs religiously every Sunday.

Jackson passed away on Tuesday, June 8, 2021 at the age of 56 in New York City home. We invite each of you to keep Jackson alive in your hearts. We have each been touched by his presence and are better because of that. Thank you for being here and for making Jackson's life so meaningful.

"For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:38-39

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
