I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Obituary

George David Stone who was affectionately called “Sonny Boy” or “Gizzy” was the son of Patricia Stone and George Suggs. He was born in Bronx, New York on December 20, 1982. George was a Bronx native who grew up there and attended elementary school, then Theodore Roosevelt High School.

George was great with technology. He loved taking pictures of himself and posting them on his social media page.

George had a big heart. He was kind, loving, caring and let us not forget, hot-headed.

Although he did not have children of his own he was very loving and affectionate when it came to children. He loved children with his whole heart whether they were family or children of his friends.

His two nieces, Sienna and Serena and his favorite little nephew, Jeremiah who he called “J-man”, all held a very special place in his heart. With much excitement he was also looking forward to the arrival of his little niece or nephew from Maisie and Adriana.

George knew a lot about life and the ways of the streets—the perils and danger of it. He would always tell any child, teen or young adult who he thought was steering in the wrong way that the streets were tough and they did not want to end up on the other side. He always reminded them that getting an education was very important and one of the many straight paths to go.

Besides loving life itself, George loved watching geographic wild life of animals. He was fascinated with wild life animals and it showed in his Instagram stories.

George enjoyed traveling. A month before the pandemic he made arrangements to get his passport because he was preparing to go to France to see his friend Zeta. He was so excited to be traveling out of the country for the first time.

He was adventurous and daring; however, he also loved relaxing by water whether it was down by the South Ferry Park or on the ferry itself; that was his go-to location for calmness and quiet time.

Anyone who knew George knew he was a huge fan of LeBron James. No matter the team LeBron was on, George would follow him to no end.

George had gone through so much in his life but he had a full life. He believed in himself. He was determined and relentless and once he fixed his mind to do something there was no stopping him.

Ultimately, his belief lied in the hands of the Lord. If there was any decision or situation too overwhelming he would immediately call upon the Lord. George never forgot who was in charge.

George was a member of Salem United Methodist Church where at an early age, he would attend Worship Services with his mother, grandmother, great-uncle and siblings.

We may no longer have George in the flesh, but he will always be with us in spirit.

He leaves behind to cherish his precious and loving memories: his mother, Patricia; his father, George; his siblings, Sean (his brother no one could replace), Samira, Sharma, Tabitha, Maisie, Mio, Trenez, Adriana, Shamyra, Nakigi, Dereka, Nicole, Margarita, Divine, Jonathan, Josh, Deborah and Elizer; his loving grandmothers, Joan Stone, Grandma Clara Suggs and Grandma Renee Long; cousin/auntie, Nichelle; great-aunts, Sylvia and Louise; aunts, Sheila and Karen; great-uncles, Chester, Gilbert and Earl; uncles, Gilbert and Joe; Derek who loved George like a son; and a host of cousins, other family and friends.

Also never to be forgotten are his friends, Anthony Ferguson who was a big brother to him who never said no; Brian who was his friend and homeboy; Lil Rayniel and Sammy who he will always be watching over; god-sister, Shawana and god-brother, Latory who will be family for life.

A special thank you goes out to Uncle Chester who embraced and endured all of who George was.

Rest well George.
