FINAL DISPOSITION:
Rosehill Crematory
Linden, New Jersey

When you heard the news, it caught you by surprise
It happen so sudden...with no time to say goodbye
Convincing yourself that it's all untrue
Trying your best to block the pain and the emptiness inside of you
Grasping the fact you now have to lay her to rest
Preparing for that day is hard to digest
But stand strong on your faith, He knows what's best
During these trying moments He test our faith
Let not your heart be troubled, neither afraid
He knows it's not easy, it's alright to cry
He's close to the broken-hearted, He's never left your side
He'll renew your strength to make it through each day
He'll lighten the load and take the pain away
How He does things we may not understand
But He's an on-time God
Everything happens according to His plan
It was her time to go that's how He intended it to be
So He whispered in her ear
"My child, I need you...follow me"
You've gained an angel, she's got her wings
So celebrate her today, she's now at peace
